Top 5 Initiatives for UNDERGRADUATE Students:

- Access to scholarships and financial aid information (85%)
- Expanded career-related opportunities (84%)
- Academic support services (including tutoring, supplemental instruction, and educational planning) that teach the skills needed to be a successful student (81%)
- Career-based experiential learning and internship opportunities for juniors and seniors (81%)
- Career counseling within specific academic areas (79%)

Top 5 Initiatives for GRADUATE Students:

- Funding for graduate student academic travel, presentations, and professional development (89%)
- Access to scholarships and financial aid information (83%)
- Expanded career-related opportunities (73%)
- Academic support services (including tutoring, supplemental instruction, and educational planning) that teach the skills needed to be a successful student (72%)
- Health and wellness programs and initiatives (67%)

*Support is defined as the percentage of students who indicated they "strongly agree" or "agree" with a particular funding initiative; Undergraduate N=4,037, Graduate N=1,450